From Saturday June 28, to Tuesday July 1, 1746.

Kenſington, July 1.

THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Warwick, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Brook, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Warwick.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Warwick, beg Leave (by the Hands of the Right Honourable our Recorder) to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, in the total Suppreſſion of the late Rebellion, under the Bravery and Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland: An Event, which ſeems to promiſe and enſure a long and undiſturbed Enjoyment of all that is valuable to us, under your Majeſty and your Royal Progeny.

When we conſider the Happineſs of living under your Majeſty's wiſe and auſpicious Government and Protection, and, in Conſequence thereof, the being preſerved in the full and peaceable Poſſeſſion of our Religion, Liberty, Properties and Laws; we cannot, without the greateſt Indignation, reflect upon any Attempt that is made to leſſen, invade or controul ſo invaluable an Inheritance.

It is therefore with the greateſt Satisfaction that we join with the reſt of our Fellow-Subjects in the moſt ardent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may continue long and proſperous over theſe great and freeborn Nations.

May your Majeſty always find, from all your faithful Subjects, the ſame ſincere Acknowledgments of Gratitude and Loyalty, which have, with ſuch Unanimity and Zeal, been tendred upon the late unhappy Occaſion; the ſame earneſt and hearty Engagements, in Support and Defence of your Majeſty's Government, whenever the Inſults or Influence of any Foreign Power ſhall preſume to diſturb or interfere with it: And may all daring and impious Attacks upon the Civil and Religious Rights of theſe Kingdoms, ever meet the ſame unſucceſsful and exemplary Fate.

Given under our Common Seal the 21ſt Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1746. and in the Twentieth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Edward Baynton, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, in the County of Wilts.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgeſſes, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Chippenham, ſenſible of the Enjoyment of every thing that is dear and valuable to us, under your Majeſty's mild and moſt auſpicious Reign, partaking in the general Joy, and warm'd with the higheſt Sentiments of Gratitude, beg Leave to approach your Throne, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late glorious Victory obtained over the Rebels, by your Majeſty's Troops, commanded by his Royal Highneſs the heroick Duke of Cumberland.

A Victory great and important! ſince on the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms depended nothing leſs, than whether we ſhould continue Britons, brave, free, and independent; or become the Slaves of Slaves; a Province to the moſt falſe, and moſt faithleſs of Nations.

The Hand of Providence has moſt remarkably diſtinguiſhed itſelf on this Occaſion; and that Heaven may perpetuate its Bleſſings to theſe Nations, by permitting your Majeſty long and happily to reign over us, the Delight of your Subjects, the Support of your Allies, the Terror of your Enemies; and that there may never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Houſe to ſit the Scepter of theſe Kingdons, to lateſt Poſterity, are the ardent Prayers of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Alexander Hume Campbell, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Freeholders of the County of Berwick.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Berwick, with Hearts full of Loyalty and Gratitude for the ineſtimable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, beg Leave to approach your ſacred Perſon, and to teſtify our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the late wicked and unnatural Rebellion, fomented and encouraged by the Kings of France and Spain, the inveterate Enemies of your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms; and to expreſs our ſincereſt Joy for the glorious Victory obtained by your Majeſty's Army, under the Conduct of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, over ſuch of your Majeſty's Subjects, as have been ſo wicked as to riſe in Rebellion againſt your Majeſty, which has been ſo wiſely improved by his Royal Highneſs, that a final Period ſeems now to be put to that horrid Attempt.

We are truly ſenſible, that it is owing to your Majeſty's ſtrenuous and unwearied Endeavours, that at this Time we are preſerved from falling a Sacrifice to the ambitious Deſigns of France, in an Attempt to force upon us a popiſh Pretender. And to us it is Matter of the greateſt Joy, that Almighty God, by beſtowing a numerous and promiſing Iſſue upon his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, has ſo greatly increaſed your Royal Family, that our Poſterity ſeems to be ſecured in that invaluable Bleſſing, of having one of your Royal Deſcendants to rule over them.

We humbly hope, and earneſtly wiſh, that your Majeſty's Throne may be more and more firmly eſtabliſhed, by all the Attempts of your Enemies to the contrary; and that your Majeſty, and your Royal Poſterity after you, may long continue, even to lateſt Poſterity, to reign over theſe Kingdoms, which have had ſuch happy Experience of your juſt and mild Government.

Signed by Appointment, and in Preſence of the Meeting.

Jo. Sinclair, Preſes.

Vienna, June 25, N. S.

The following is a Relation, publiſhed by this Court, of the Battle near Placentia, on the 16th of June, N. S. 1746. between the Imperial Army under the Command of Prince Lichtenſtein, and the Combined Armies of France, Spain, and Genoa.

MArſhal Maillebois having left Novi on the 11th with all his French and Genoeſe Troops, and having joined the Spaniſh Army on the 14th near Placentia, poſted his Left Wing near the Town, and his Right upon the River Trebia; that, and the following Day, all the Generals of the Enemy made the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for an Attack; about Eleven o'Clock the ſame Night, (viz. the 15th) the Enemy advanced againſt our Left Wing, they had very good Succeſs in the Beginning, having very ſoon diſlodged ſome of our advanced Guards from the Caſſines and Redoubts, which our irregular Troops occupied. As the Darkneſs of the Night hindred us from diſcovering where the Enemy might attack us with the greateſt Force, (which rendred it difficult for us to make ſo good Diſpoſitions as might otherwiſe have been made) Prince Lichtenſtein only gave Orders for the whole Army to be in Arms, and repair to the Poſts which had been aſſigned them the Day before, and to wait for the Enemy in that Manner; that every Officer ſhould maintain his Poſt to the laſt Extremity in caſe he ſhould be attacked. At Break of Day we perceived the Enemy's whole Army advancing in Order of Battle, at a ſmall Diſtance from us; and the Right, commanded by Marſhal Maillebois, with whom were the Spaniſh Guards and Walloons, began the Action. The Enemy advanced in very good Order againſt our Left Wing, and were well received by the Field Pieces belonging to our Regiments. Ten Companies of our Grenadiers, which form'd a Corps de Reſerve, fell upon their Flank, and repulſed them; but having purſued them too far, were obliged to retire to prevent their being cut off: Upon which Marſhal Maillebois advanced in perfect good Order, and with great Bravery, quite up to our ſmall Arms, which began to make a continual Fire upon them. But General Brown, with the Infantry of his Wing, and General Lucheſi with the Cavalry, having made proper and immediate Diſpoſitions to alter the Attack, the latter advanced with the three Regiments of Lobkowitz, Ballayra, and Holly; and having received the firſt Fire of the Enemy, fell upon their Infantry Sword in Hand with ſo much Valour, that he routed them, and without giving them the leaſt Time to recover themſelves, purſued them till they got under the Walls of Placentia; from which the conſiderable Loſs of the Enemy may be conjectured. After this General Lucheſi returned with a great many Priſoners of War to take Poſſeſſion of his former Poſt. In the mean while, the Spaniſh General M. de Gages having ſeen the bad Succeſs of the Right Wing, and that on the contrary, his Left Wing began to gain ſome Advantages, reinforced it in ſuch a Manner, that our Right Wing was not only obliged to give Way before the great Number of the Enemy, but we were alſo forced to evacuate the greateſt Part of the Redoubts and Caſſines which we were in Poſſeſſion of;

of; Whereupon we reinforced our Right Wing: General Linden, who commanded there, fell upon the Enemy in Flank with his Regiment of Dragoons, and four Squadrons of Cuiraſſiers of the Regiment of Portugal, routed them, and being followed by the Infantry, which by his Example recovered their Courage, and being ſupported by ſome Battalions of the Left Wing, obliged them to abandon the Redoubts and Caſſines which they had made themſelves Maſters of, and drove them with his Cavalry quite up to the Gates of the City; it was in this Manner that we gained this compleat Victory. The King of Sardinia's Troops were not in the Action, not having been able to follow the Enemy in their forced Marches farther than to the Caſtle of Nuovo di Scrivia; however, it is not doubted but that they are come up by this Time. According to the beſt Diſcoveries we have yet been able to make, our two Wings made about 4000 of the Enemy Priſoners of War, took 27 Colours, three Standards, and five Pieces of Cannon. Amongſt the Priſoners are Lieutenant General d'Aremberg, Major General Wurtz, five or ſix Brigadiers, and about 200 other Officers. The Enemy's Loſs in killed muſt be conſiderable, though we have not any Particulars of it as yet. Our Loſs amounts to about 2000 Men; General Keil is wounded; Count Geyerſperg, Colonel of Bernclau's, is dead. Colonel Buda, Colonel Starhemberg of Holly's Regiment, and Lieutenant Colonel Janus, of Daun's Regiment, are wounded. Count Thurn, Captain of Lobkowitz's Regiment, is dead; his Brother, who is a Cornet under Schmerzing, is wounded, as are ſeveral others.
